NON-RESIDENT ATTACHMENT NOTICE.

TO D. C. GILLENWATERS AND WIFE
MAGGIE GILLENWATERS
L. C. Ely vs. J. J. Gillenwaters et al
State of Tennessee. In Chancery
Court of Knox County. No. 15874

In this cause it appearing from the bill filed, which is sworn to, that the defendants D. C. Gillenwaters and wife Maggie Gillenwaters are justly indebted to L. C. Ely Complainant and are non-residents of the state of Tennessee, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on them and an original attachment having been issued and levied on the defendant's property, all the right, title and interest, both legal and equitable of the defendants, in the following described property, to-wit:

A piece of parcel of land situated in the first Civil District of Knox County, Tennessee, beginning on the East side of Jackboro Street, at the point where it intersects the south line of the Dameron Tract, (said beginning point being the southeast corner of the Old Gray Cemetery) thence southerly along the east side of Jackboro Street 44 1-2 feet; thence eastwardly in the direction north 52 degrees east 71 1-2 feet to a stake in the Dameron line; thence westwardly along the Dameron line 73 feet to the beginning, including in the above boundary the northern 44 1-2 feet of lot No. 22 in William G. Swans Addition.

Parcel situated in the second Civil District of Knox County, and more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a point in the west line of Erie Street, 172 feet from the north line of Atlantic Avenue, north westwardly along the north line of said Erie Street, 133 feet more or less to a stake in the right of way of the K. C. G. & L. Railway, thence westwardly along the line of said right of way 237 1-2 feet, more or less, to a stake in the northern line of an alley; thence easterly along the northern line of said alley 200 feet more or less, to the beginning, being a triangular piece of ground located in Block No. 14 in Lincoln Park.

Parcel situated in Lincoln Park and being what is known as lot No. 110 in Block 16, of the Fifth Addition of Edgewood Land and Improvement Company's addition and beginning at the southeast corner of Buren Street and Tennessee Avenue, and thence running easterly with the south line of Tennessee Avenue, 50 feet to a stake; thence southerly at right angles and parallel to Buren Street, 162 feet to an alley; thence westwardly with said alley 50 feet to a stake; thence northerly 162 feet to the beginning.

It is ordered that said defendants appear before the Chancery Court, at Knoxville, Tennessee, on or before the first Monday of Jan. next, and make defense to said bill, or the same will be taken for confessed and the cause set for hearing ex parte as to them. This notice will be published in the Knoxville Independent for four consecutive weeks. This 19th day of Nov. 1918

PLAN TO RAISE $80,000,000

Ministers and Laymen Attend World Program Conference of Methodist Church at Boston.

Boston, Dec. 4.—Ministers and laymen, representing virtually every Methodist church in New England, attended the world program conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in this city when plans for raising $80,000,000 within the next four years were outlined. The program is to be carried out in connection with the one hundredth anniversary of the first mission of the church, and the money is to be used for extending the church's work throughout the world.

Former Kaiser Consults Experts.
London.—William Hohenzollern, former German Emperor, has had several interviews at Amerongen with two German experts on international law with whom he discussed his personal position, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Express. These experts arrived and left Amerongen in a rather mysterious manner. It is understood, according to the dispatch, that Hohenzollern is writing his autobiography and a history of his reign. He will explain his attitude before and during the war, it is said.

SENATORS GET HEARST DATA

Copies of Telegrams Signed by Publisher Read into Record at Hearing on German Propaganda.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Government copies of telegrams signed by William Randolph Hearst, giving instructions regarding the policy of his newspapers and their correspondents during the war, were read into the record at the hearing of the senate committee investigating German propaganda. In a message to the New York American, dated February 24, 1917, Mr. Hearst outlined instructions to be cable to William Bayard Hale, then a Hearst correspondent in Berlin. Mr. Hearst said he believed the vast majority of people in America and Germany opposed the entry of the United States into the war, and concluded: "We earnestly desire to employ the influence of our country not for the extension or protraction of the war but for the promotion of a just and lasting peace."

ASKS MARSHALL TO PRESIDE

President Wants Vice President to Attend Cabinet Meeting at White House.

Washington, Dec. 11.—Vice President Marshall was asked by President Wilson in a wireless message to preside at the usual Tuesday cabinet meeting at the White House. Jackson, Dr. Benjamin Jackson, who volunteered last spring in the medical reserve corps of the United States army and was given the rank of first lieutenant following training at Fort Oglethorpe, has been promoted to captain at Camp Upton.

New York, Dec. 11.—After an all-day session at which Mexico's proposed "petroleum code" was declared wholly unsatisfactory, the American Association of Petroleum Producers in Mexico, comprising 33 members, cabled their representatives in Mexico to break off negotiations with the Mexican government and return to the United States.

ALLIES SEND NOTE TO CHINA

Message, Dated December 3, Hints at Desirability of Terminating All Differences.

London, Dec. 11.—The allied diplomats have sent a note to China hinting at the desirability of terminating all differences, said an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Tientsin, France. It was stated, disclaiming any intention of interference in Chinese affairs. The note was dated December 3.

Vice President Marshall Presided.
Washington.—Vice President Marshall presided over Cabinet meeting at the request of President Wilson who is en route to Europe, and set a precedent in the conduct of American executive affairs. No other Vice President, so far as records show, ever presided at a Cabinet session. In taking his seat Mr. Marshall set at rest any theories that he might be acting as President. He said he was attending the gathering "informally and impersonally, not undertaking to exercise any official duty or function."

Yanks Leaving Germany.
Berlin.—Twenty-six hundred American prisoners of war, interned at Camp Rastatt, left there for Switzerland. Two hundred other Americans who have been scattered in various camps in Germany are leaving Germany by way of Holland and Denmark. It is expected that the last of the Americans will be out of German camps by the middle of this week.

Influenza Epidemic.
Washington.—An official summary of the results of the influenza epidemic in army camps and military centers in the United States, made public by the War Department shows that there were 38,257 cases of the disease up to December 1, with approximately 17,000 deaths.

Ban on German Renewed.
Washington.—Prohibitory legislation against the teaching of the German language in the schools of Washington was re-enacted for another year by the House in considering the District of Columbia 1920 appropriation bill.
